sleeps long and hard all night. Our lives have changed for the (so much) better. The three of us go on walks in the morning and Bay has learned sit, come and stay. Finally last night Bay relaxed a little and let me go into a room all by myself. I reassured him by coming back :) Thanks so much, for completing our family, and enriching our lives.

A Gem of a Dog in Phoebe!

We adopted "Gem" in February of this year, and she has adapted very well to her new home. It was slow going at first, she chewed a lot of furniture, walls, window-sills and dog beds. She has the spirit of an angel, and we understand her issues and have been very consistent with her routine which has helped her to be a more manageable dog. Everyone that meets her, wants to keep her. She wiggles her whole body when she greets people, not just her family. We now call her Phoebe and she has two other dogs in her pack at home that love her too.

Cooper and His Many Jobs

I got Cooper in 2011. He has several jobs he takes seriously. He is secretary dog at sheepdog trials, protects his pack of border collies from all dangers and makes sure any unoccupied laps are occupied-by him. He used to want to help collect the sheep but when he found out there are rules, he decided to let the border collies do it. This is a picture of him taken at his first sheepdog trial-hanging out watching the dogs competing, with his best buddy under the chair.
