We Love to Hear from You!

We love to hear from PUP adopters! Here are a few Happy Tails to make you smile.

Ellery's Happy Tail

I thought you and his foster mother would like to see some pictures of this happy boy. I adopted him from PUP on October 19, 2019.

I can tell he was raised with love. Every evening he puts his paws on my leg and wants to be picked up for a shoulder snuggle. Other times, he is full of energy and each bird, leaf or mosquito that flutters by his favorite window is worth chasing with gusto!

He and his new big brother Yuki get along great, and take turns being the boss as they play and chase each other.

with whom she wants to play. she chases around the yard with them. In the last 2 years she has begun to climb into my lap during times of sadness to comfort me in the loss of my husband. What a blessed person I am. Thank you PUP for finding her for me.

provided a safe and positive place for her to be among people and other dogs. I also found many owners w/dogs in my neighborhood willing to stop for a minute to give her a chance to grow socially. We now go to training just to have fun doing agility and other fun experiences. Maggie now has 3 neighborhood friends about her size

Andre's Gotcha

Day

Seven years ago on June 24th, our Bichon-Poodle Andre came into our lives. He arrived by transport from California, matted and starved, possibly taken out of a puppy mill. His healthy weight today is 22 lbs, yet he came to me 7 years ago at 12 lbs., skinny and shaved. His foster parents were wonderful with him, integrating him into their home and helping him with his housebreaking. I continue to be amazed at how resilient these pups are, forgiving their past and embracing their present and future. Andre is a delight. My daughter-in-law calls him Romeo for his snuggles and loving nature.

I am forever grateful to PUP and to his foster for their part in the rescue of our beloved boy.
